

PA 51-PRILA, 276
PENNSYLVANIA

Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA

* : 12s

State

County

Town or Vicinity

Stafford's Tavern-Paschall House ("Cove Cornice House", "Sisk
Houses
Structure now "Man Full of Trouble Tavern") (PA-128)

127 Spruce St. Historic Tavern Museum. Originally built as two structures: brick, 20'-6" deep x 37'-4" (four-bay front), two-and-a-half stories, half gambrel roof with shed dormers, party wall and corner chimneys, pent roof, plaster cove cornice; cellar vaults under sidewalk, two large first-floor rooms, winder staircases in each structure, two rooms and stairhall on each upper floor;
paneled chimney breasts in second-floor rooms of Stafford's

1 INK. 10 PENCIL, 1 1937 INK

TRACING 1A - KRONER 100

FN-65 11 FILE PRINTS

* Note verso

* note below

Tavern structure. Built 1759-60; projecting one-story frame shed built at northeast corner before 1835 demolished, interior altered 1879, 1900. Restored by Knauer Foundation for Historic Preservation, 1963-65; W. Nelson Anderson, architect. 12 sheets (elevations and cornice detail, 1937; plans, elevations and details, 1958; plans and elevations, 1965).

Card prepared August 1972. *

PA 128 Staffords Tavern-Pascal House	sheets 1-4	281
PA 128A Spruce-Mattis Sts., Phila Pa	sheets 1-5
PA 128B Benjamin Pascal House	sheets 1-3
		<hr/>
		12 total